

Spotting the risk - open water

Situation

You see a group of children taking turns to see how far out to sea they can swim

You see someone diving from a rock into the sea

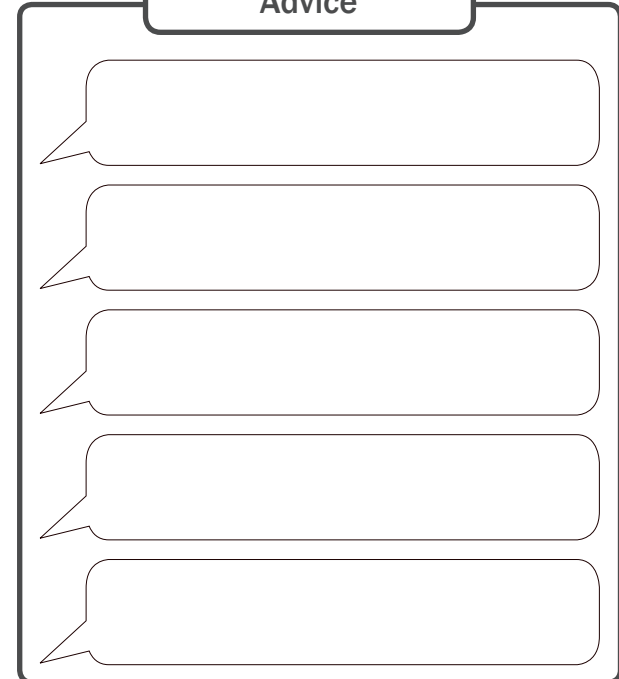

You see some friends swimming when a red flag is flying

You see some children riding on an inflatable toy in the sea

You see a boy flying a kite in a park by the top of a cliff

Risk

Advice

Spotting the risk - and Giving Advice

Here are five situations that you might encounter at the seaside. Next to each one, write down the risks involved. Then think about what safety advice you would give and write it in the speech bubble