

Seaside scenario 1

A group of friends suggest seeing who can swim out to sea the furthest. You know that some of the group cannot swim very well.

What might happen?

What are the risks?

Why might you or other people go along with it?

What could you say or do?

Seaside scenario 2

A group of friends suggest jumping into the sea from some rocks near the seashore.

What might happen?

What are the risks?

Why might you or other people go along with it?

What could you say or do?

Seaside scenario 3

A group of friends are playing on the beach together. One of them has to look after a younger brother or sister. They can't keep up with the rest of the group and the others make fun of this.

What might happen?

What are the risks?

Why might you or other people go along with it?

What could you say or do?

Seaside scenario 4

Some of your friends want to play 'dare' and take turns to look over the edge of a cliff.

What might happen?

What are the risks?

Why might you or other people go along with it?

What could you say or do?

Seaside scenario 5

It's a windy day. Some friends have an inflatable boat and suggest rowing out to the deeper water.

What might happen?

What are the risks?

Why might you or other people go along with it?

What could you say or do?

